

PUBLIC UTILITIES.

Railroad. —

Newark Branch of the Erie Railroad.

Stations: Nutley<sup>[1]</sup> (first called Stitt's Station), West Nutley, and Avondale.

Trolley. — North Jersey Street Railway Company.

Water Supply. — From East Jersey Water Company, Pequannock watershed.

Telephone. — New York and New Jersey Telephone Company.

Lighting. — Gas and electric light from Public Service Corporation of New Jersey.

Fire Department. —

Organized 1894. Yantacaw Engine Company, No. 1, with combination chemical engine, quarters in Town Hall.

Avondale Hose Company, No. 1, has its own building equipped with combination chemical engine. West Nutley Hose Company, equipped with hose and hose carriage.

Bank. — Organized 1906. Located in Town Hall.

Local Papers. — The Nutley Sun and The Nutleyan.

Libraries. —

The Public School Library, including the State Traveling Library, at The Park School. The Nutley Library, Passaic Avenue.

---

<sup>[1]</sup> The present building was erected by popular subscription, after the first one was burned.